Suresh Gyan Vihar University's School of Hotel Management Achieves a New Record with "Longest & Heaviest Shahi Tukada"

The School of Hotel Management at Suresh Gyan Vihar University, Jagatpura, Jaipur, accomplished the awe-inspiring feat of adding a glorious new record to its cap this year by setting a culinary achievement. The "Shahi Tukada" was no ordinary dessert; it was a mammoth creation, measuring 11 feet by 5 feet in length and width, and weighing a whopping 709 kg. The record-breaking dish epitomizes the rich Mughlai heritage of Indian gastronomy and is considered a signature dish of that era. The endeavour was undertaken by a dedicated team of 11 chefs and 250 students from the university. The preparations for the grand "Shahi Tukada" included a myriad of ingredients to achieve its impressive size and sumptuous taste. The dish required 350 kg of bread, which was roasted in ovens and salamanders to ensure a healthy preparation. Additionally, 250 litres of saffron-flavoured milk, 50 kg of sugar, and 40 kg of assorted nuts such as almonds, cashew nuts, and raisins were used to add texture and flavour to the sweet delight. The finishing touch involved garnishing the "Shahi Tukada" with "Silver Varak", adding a touch of opulence to the dish.

The magnificent record attempt took place at the open-air theatre on the university premises under the watchful eyes of the representatives of "Limca Book of Records" and "India Book of Records". Honourable Chairman, Shree Sunil Sharma, and Honourable Chief Mentor, Dr. Sudhanshu Sharma, along with other dignitaries of the university, including President Dr. A.S. Haldar and Pro-president Prof. (Dr.) R.M. Gilhotra, graced the cutting ceremony of the "Shahi Tukada". After the successful record-breaking ceremony, the scrumptious "Shahi Tukada" was distributed among the students of Suresh Gyan Vihar University, allowing everyone to savour this exceptional culinary achievement.
