

SURESH GYAN VIHAR UNIVERSITY

Celebrating Victory and Unity: Bellicose 2k23 at SGVU

The SGVU Law School hosts an informative workshop on moot court ethics

throughout the event. As the days unfolded, the sprawling campus witnessed intense battles on cricket fields, chess boards, basketball courts, soccer pitches, and more. Participants poured their hearts into each match, showcasing not only their athletic abilities but also the spirit of unity and sportsmanship that defines SGVU. This vibrant atmosphere became a testament to the diverse talents and passions thriving within the university community, fostering a profound sense of togetherness. The Grand Finale brought the curtains down on Bellicose 2k23 with a celebration of achievements and camaraderie. The closing ceremony was a reflection of the dedication and hard work put forth by every participant. From nail-biting cricket matches to strategic chess duels, the ceremony highlighted the accomplishments of the athletes who made Bellicose 2K23 a resounding success.

The School of Law at Suresh Gyan Vihar University conducted a dynamic two-day workshop on moot court ethics. Held on October 4th and 5th, 2023, in the esteemed moot court hall, the workshop aimed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the ethical dimensions of moot court and competitions. This workshop is an invaluable educational session on all participants. If opportunity that will leave an indelible impression It not only provided students with the ethical foundation necessary for a successful or legal career but also instilled a firm commitment to upholding the highest levels of professionalism in the legal arena.

Suresh Gyan Vihar University arena where athletes showcased chess to the dynamic energy of culminated its highly- anticipated sports meet, creating enduring memories for 'Bellicose 2k23,' with an electrifying display of athletic prowess, teamwork, and sportsmanship. Over two exhilarating days, the campus was transformed into a dynamic arena where athletes showcased their skills across various sports, cricket and the agility of basketball, the ceremony marked the beginning of a thrilling journey. The true spirit of Bellicose 2K23 reverberated across the university campus, with cheers igniting a flame of enthusiasm that persisted throughout the event.

SGVU Joins Hands in Nationwide Swachhata Hi Seva Campaign

Suresh Gyan Vihar University participates in the Swachhata Hi Seva Campaign. On October 1, @SwachhBharatGov launched the nationwide #SwachhataHiSeva campaign, in which Suresh Gyan Vihar University participated actively. As part of the 'Ek Tareekh Ek Ghanta' initiative, the university's devoted faculty and students participated in the cleanup of vulnerable sites, demonstrating their dedication to environmental responsibility its students. SGVU keeps pushing and civic duty. This vigilant for initiatives promoting a cleaner participation exemplifies the and healthier India, reiterating its university's commitment to commitment to the national fostering social awareness and agenda of constructing a responsible citizenship among sustainable ecosystem

Empowering Future Educators: SGVU's Workshop on "Placement and Career in Education"

The School of Education at Suresh Gyan Vihar University recently organized an insightful workshop focusing on "Placement and Career in Education." The event witnessed active participation from 60 enthusiastic attendees. This workshop served various pivotal purposes. It aimed to equip participants with essential knowledge and insights into the diverse career opportunities within the field of education. Additionally, the workshop strived to foster a deep understanding of the skills, qualifications, and competencies required to excel in these roles. Furthermore, the event sought to provide a platform for meaningful networking, connecting aspiring educators with established professionals in the field. The overarching purpose was to bridge the gap between academic preparation and the practical demands of the education sector.

University Community Unites for Cerebral Palsy Awareness: Breaking Barriers and Inspiring Hope with this condition, which emphasizes the importance of initiatives like the one that SGVU is taking to promote understanding, support, and research. The campus resonated with the rallying cry, "Waise toh hum anek hai, lekin hum sab ek hai" (Though we are many, we are one), underscoring the unity of purpose that defined the event. students, faculty, and supporters converged in a remarkable display of solidarity, all dedicated to shining a spotlight on cerebral palsy. This extraordinary event serves as a beacon of inspiration, demonstrating the remarkable potential of a united university community to effect meaningful change in the lives of those living with disabilities. It urges other educational institutions and communities to join in the noble cause of cerebral palsy awareness and inclusive practices.

In a profound display of unity and purpose, the SGVU campus witnessed a gathering of students, faculty, and community members on October 6, 2023, dedicated to raising awareness and funds for cerebral palsy. Organized by the university's wellness community, this event stands as a testament to the power of collective action in championing a cause that affects millions globally. Cerebral palsy, a neurological condition impacting movement and muscle coordination, presents a daily challenge for a significant number of individuals worldwide. There are 17 million people who struggle

ISBM Seminar on Inclusive Finance: Equipping Students for a Bright Financial Future

ISBM Seminar: Empowering Students with Financial Insight

On September 29, 2023, the International School of Business Management hosted a national seminar on inclusive finance. Under the direction of Mr. Pruthvish, the event highlighted prudent investment and saving his expertise and straightforward communication resonated with the audience, leaving a lasting impression. This seminar prepared students for the prosperous future.

Hotel Shiv Vilas Visit: Gyan Vihar School of Hotel Management Raises the Bar for Learning

From Classroom to Opulence: Gyan Vihar at Shiv Vilas

The Gyan Vihar School of Hotel Management in Jaipur is pleased to announce the successful completion of an enriching industrial visit to the prestigious Hotel Shiv Vilas. This excursion, which took place on October 11, 2023, offered students an invaluable opportunity to get practical insights into the world of premium hospitality. The Gyan Vihar School of Hotel Management methodically planned the industrial tour with the goal of providing students with hands-on experience in the hospitality business and exposing them to the magnificence and grandeur of a five-star luxury hotel. Students enthusiastically participated and lauded the project. The industrial visit to Hotel Shiv Vilas fits in perfectly with Gyan Vihar School of Hotel Management's commitment to offering a comprehensive education in hotel management, preparing students for lucrative careers in the hospitality sector.

Suresh Gyan University's School of Education Leads Campus Clean-Up Drive

The School of Education at Suresh Gyan University spearheaded a significant clean-up initiative on the campus cricket field. This proactive endeavor aims to prevent the creation of unhygienic conditions, ensuring it remains a visually appealing area while also safeguarding against potential environmental impacts. The concerted effort to maintain a tidy environment resonates with the call to serve Mother India, emphasizing the university's commitment to uphold cleanliness and hygiene within its premises. This event not only fosters a sense of collective responsibility but also sets an exemplary standard for students and the community at large.

"Dono" Stars Light Up Suresh Gyan Vihar University in a Spectacular Movie Promotion Event!

A Night to Remember: "Dono" Stars Grace SGVU in Grand Movie Promotion

The campus of Suresh Gyan Vihar University was ablaze with excitement as the stars of the movie "Dono," Rajveer Deol and Paloma, along with Director Avinash S. Barjatya, graced the occasion. The highlight of the event was the exclusive launch of their song "Khamma Ghani" which resonated with fervor across the campus. The university extended a warm welcome to the esteemed guests, adorning them with our grandest Safa, a symbol of our rich cultural heritage. Students were captivated by the insights shared about the making of "Dono" and found inspiration in Rajveer Deol's debut journey and Paloma's on-screen charisma. Director Avinash S. Barjatya's creative vision left an indelible mark. The event concluded with heartfelt gratitude from the university, cementing our connection with the world of cinema. As we bid farewell to the stars, the echoes of their words and the melody of "Khamma Ghani" lingered, igniting a newfound passion for the art within our campus.

SDG Club, B.Tech 1st Year, and BSG Collaborate for Ozone Conservation "Elocution Battle"

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Club, first-year B.Tech students, and the Bharat Soka Gakkai (BSG) jointly organized an "Elocution Battle" on October 11, 2023, to promote ozone layer preservation. Participants, representing various academic disciplines, passionately addressed the critical issue of ozone layer conservation. Through articulate speeches, they emphasized the indispensable role of the ozone layer in safeguarding the planet's health. The event highlighted the power of collective efforts to address environmental challenges. It garnered significant attention on social media platforms, amplifying awareness about ozone layer preservation. This initiative exemplifies the proactive role of the younger generation in shaping a sustainable future. The organizers extend gratitude to all participants for their enthusiastic engagement in spreading awareness about environmental conservation.

SGVU's SDG Club Hosts Impactful "Gender Inequality" Nukkad Natak

17 students used their thespian skills under the direction of the Faculty Coordinator for the SDG Club to deliver a moving message about the complex issues surrounding gender inequality. The Nukkad Natak proved to be a compelling and thought-provoking portrayal of the difficulties and disparities experienced by individuals of varying genders. It effectively highlighted the persisting stereotypes, biases, and discriminatory practices in society, encouraging the assembled audience to reflect on the vital importance of gender equality. The student performances were characterized by their profundity and emotional resonance, leaving a profound impression on the onlookers who had gathered to witness the event. The participants demonstrated unwavering dedication and ardor, evident through their exemplary acting skills and eloquent dialogue delivery, which resonated deeply with the audience.

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Club at SGVU orchestrated a compelling Nukkad Natak (Street Play) themed "Gender Inequality" on October 15, 2023, at the Open-Air Theatre (OAT) near the School of Pharmacy, SGVU.

Gyan Vihar School of Pharmacy Champions Awareness on Vector-Borne Diseases in Kacholiya Village

In a proactive move, the Gyan Vihar School of Pharmacy at SGVU, Jaipur, organized a comprehensive awareness program regarding vector-borne diseases in Kacholiya Village, Bassi, Jaipur. This rural community is challenged by maladies such as malaria, dengue, chikungunya, and Japanese encephalitis. The program's objective was to equip villagers with the knowledge necessary to protect themselves and their families.